A Note from Our Director

Dear Friends and Family,

Welcome to VOX: Traitors: A Murder Mystery and to the 37th season of the Columbus Gay Men's Chorus!

For 37 seasons, CGMC has been about more than the music we make onstage. At our heart is community—a place where LGBTQIA+ people and our allies can gather, create, celebrate, tell our stories, and know that we belong. That community exists because of you. Every ticket purchased, friend invited, hour volunteered, and financial gift helps ensure that queer voices continue to be heard throughout Central Ohio. As we begin another season together, I hope you'll consider how you can help sustain that work.

Of course, every strong community is built on trust.

And tonight, that may be a problem.

You see, I've heard it through the grapevine that something rather suspicious has happened. There's a fever in the air, and everyone seems to have a secret—or an alibi.

Now, I'm not one for superstition, but beneath a pale moon, even the most innocent among us can begin to look a little suspicious. Keep your eyes open and pay attention to the clues. We'd hate to resort to torture to get a confession.

Tonight, there are clues to uncover, motives to question, and some rather suspicious characters who may—or may not—be sitting very close to you. So listen carefully. Watch closely. Trust your instincts. And if things get too dangerous, you can always evacuate the dancefloor.

Because somewhere among us lurks a...MURRRRDERRRRER!

Thank you for beginning our 37th season with us and for being part of the community that makes this work possible.

Now, we have a murrerrderrrr to solve.

Enjoy the show!

CGMC Artistic Team

Jared Brayton Bollenbacher, MM, MSW, LICSW

(he, him, his)

Artistic Director

After leaving his dairy farm upbringing in his home state of Indiana, Brayton received a Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance from The Ohio State University in 2006 and a Bachelor of Arts in sexualities studies in 2007, completing a thesis on How Gay Male Bias Influences the Gender Performance of Drag Queens in and out of Drag. After spending six amazing years in Columbus, Brayton completed his Master of Social Work at the University of Washington in Seattle in 2010, and received his Licensed Independent Clinical Social Work credentials in 2014.

After graduating in 2010, Brayton spent six years as the artistic director of Diverse Harmony, the nation's first queer straight alliance youth chorus, and Diverse Harmony's small a cappella ensemble Spectrum. He left Seattle in 2017 to become the artistic director of Reveille Men's Chorus and Desert Voices Chorus in Tucson, AZ. Brayton completed his Master of Choral Conducting in 2020 from the University of Arizona. In 2022, following COVID, he spent six months as interim with NYCGMC. Brayton is focused on developing community choral organizations. He is currently serving his sixth year on the board for GALA Choruses and is the committee chair for the Membership and Education committee. Brayton is adjunct professor in the School of Social Work at The Ohio State University. He is honored and thankful to be in Columbus with CGMC as their artistic director. Being able to lead the innovative, resilient gem of GALA Choruses in the heart of the Midwest is a dream come true.

Nathan Hamm (he, him, his)

Principal Accompanist

Nathan Hamm enjoys being the principal accompanist for CGMC for over 20 years. He received the Bachelor of Music for Piano Performance at The Ohio State University in 1995. Since then the main practice of his trade has been as a choir accompanist. He has worked with The Dublin Singers, The Delaware Chorus, and high school choral programs of Westland, Westerville, Olentangy and Central Crossing high schools. He's been enjoying positions as church pianist for the North Unitarian Universalist Congregation, and currently at the First Unitarian Universalist Church, where along with services, he has performed several chamber music and solo recitals.

Alexis Hefley (she/her/hers)

CGMC Operations Manager

Alexis Hefley has joined the CGMC in October 2025 as Operations Manager! She is a classically-trained musician building a professional career in a hybrid of nonprofit and performance-based work. She holds two degrees in flute performance from Otterbein University (B.M.) and the University of Akron (M.M.), and currently performs with the Westerville Symphony, Newark-Granville Symphony Orchestra, and Ohio Capital Winds. She is also the flute instructor at Encore Music Studios in Westerville, OH.

When not at CGMC or making music, you may also find Alexis at the McConnell Arts Center in Worthington, OH, where she began and continues her work in nonprofit arts administration. She preceded her time with nonprofits as a Graduate Teaching Assistant during her Master's degree, and found enjoyment in helping students grow and find their inner artistic voices. In all her work, Alexis values the process of connecting people to the arts and giving the same joy back to the community that music has provided in her own life.

CGMC Artistic Team

Bruce Reedy (he/him/his) / Production Manager

Bruce Reedy is a sound design technician. He has produced sound and video for the Short North Stage, MadLab Theater, and for CGMC for many years. Other credits include set design, lighting design, videography, video editing and productions for The 48 Hour Film Project. Bruce served on the production team and as the technical director for the CGMC performance of the locally written musical essay FINDING OZ performed at the Gala international Music Festival in Denver.

Jason Bokis (he/him/his) / Videographer

Jason joined CGMC in 1998 after moving to Columbus searching for place to continue performing choral music and find a community. Graduated from Ohio Northern University, Jason is a pharmacist and started a local videography and editing business, JB Media Design. He has produced projects for Nina West, Local Drama Clubs, GALA Choruses, and of course CGMC. Jason loves the mission and artistry of CGMC and loves capturing the magic of our performances to share with the world.

Alli Smith (she/her/hers) / Script Team

Allison (Alli) was born in Panama City, Panama and eventually landed in Ohio where she has stayed...for the most part. Alli studied to be a Sign Language Interpreter in Michigan, but left the glitz and glamour of the Deaf Community to work in the shinier promise land of the medical field at Ohio State University Physicians. Alli grew up loving music, writing, art, cat's, and about five people. One of those five people, Sarah Spalding, introduced her to CGMC in 2020, and the two have been singing with the group ever since. Allison is happily married to husband Todd Smith, and living in Columbus, surrounded by music, writing, art, and cat's, and proudly likes a few more than five people now. Alli would like to thank her husband, friends, family, and co-workers who are in attendance and for their constant encouragement of all the little side adventures life takes her on. Thank you to the cast of this show for graciously leaning in to their characters and making the show what we envisioned. Alli's cat was also turned away at the door, even while wearing a convincing trench coat, riding on the shoulders of Caedmon and Bebo. This show is for you, Rocket and Thor.

Craig Brandenburg (he/him/his) / Script Team

Born in Ohio and a graduate of Miami University, Craig spent the first 21 years of his post-graduate life teaching Algebra in Texas. Upon returning to Ohio in 2022, Craig was OVER IT and decided to take a simpler job with Amazon. But after three months, he found himself teaching AGAIN...this time showing people how to drive forklifts. He can't escape it! Musically, Craig sang with the Miami University Men's Glee Club and was a co-founder of The Remnants, a now-disbanded a cappella group on campus. He joined CGMC in 2023 and VOX in 2025. At a CGMC event, he accidentally mentioned to Brayton that he had a background in video production and then found himself on the communications team—and now co-writing the script for tonight's show, VOX Traitors: A Murder Mystery. And while all of the above has been a lot of work, he has loved every minute of it and is beyond thankful for this new group of friends and experiences. A special thanks to all my co-workers at Amazon, my Tuesday board game group, friends from high school and college, and family who are attending tonight's performance. Oh, and Caedmon and Bebo, who couldn't make it tonight. They are cats and were turned away at the door.

Tyler Shahan (he/him/his)
ASL Interpreter

Ty is a Sign Language Coordinator and Interpreter at Ohio University, where he supports Deaf faculty and university events through University Accessibility Services. With roughly a decade of interpreting experience, Ty is passionate about making spaces more accessible and connected. He holds an Associate's degree in Deaf Studies and Interpreting and a Bachelor's degree in Integrated Healthcare Studies from Ohio University. Outside of work, Ty sings in the Columbus Gay Men's Chorus large chorus, runs marathons, and frolics in his gardens with his many cats and dogs.

Nico Fuentes (they/them; hearing)
ASL Interpreter

Nico Fuentes (they/them; hearing) is an ASL-English interpreter, artist, and PhD student in Women's Gender and Sexuality Studies at Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio. With a passion for linguistic and disability justice, their research interests converge at the intersections of sign language interpreting, crip and Black studies. Fuentes celebrates 10 years of sign language interpreting this year and feels passionate about deaf equity and access in the arts and all realms of life. In their free time they're often at home cooking and eating or in the woods chasing wildflowers and their little dog, Roo.

Alex McFarland (she/her/hers)
Membership Director

Alex McFarland serves as the Membership Director for the Columbus Gay Men's Chorus, but has been making music with them since 2022. Tonight will be her third season of performing with Vox. Previously being only a casual singer and occasional dancer for CGMC and Vox, now she is excited to be in leadership and learn the behind-the-scenes elements of what makes the group so special.

She can easily be spotted on stage dancing her heart out to any song. When Alex is not performing on stage, she is working at the James Cancer Hospital as a certified surgical technologist. She is alongside the surgeon helping to remove cancer, ensuring sterility is kept, and helping the procedure run efficiently.

Raised by a queer parent, Alex has a great passion for supporting and celebrating the queer community. She believes the power of music can create strong bonds between individuals that can last a lifetime. She is incredibly grateful to be part of the chorus's sound, part of its mission, and part of its positive impact on the community. The Columbus Gay Men's Chorus is a priceless gem in this city.

In Vox's performance of Traitors, Alex plays the ditzy housewife Alexandra. She clearly is not smart enough to pull off an elaborate murder and get away with it, or is she?

Do you have the chops to figure out who the murderer is? Stay tuned to find out, and enjoy the show.

Krystal Jackowiak-Mitchell (she/her/hers)
President of the Board of Directors

Krystal Jackowiak-Mitchell serves as President of the Board of Directors for the Columbus Gay Men's Chorus and has been part of the CGMC family since 2021. Since then, she has collected an assortment of Chorus hats, including Membership Director, Member-at-Large, Vice President, video producer, enthusiastic backstage problem-solver, and now Board President.

By day, Krystal works in Early Careers and people development, creating programs centered on opportunity, connection, and belonging. By night, she can often be found helping CGMC turn big ideas, ambitious productions, questionable jokes, and a whole lot of heart into something worth putting onstage.

Krystal believes deeply in the power of queer arts to create joy, strengthen community, and bring people together. She is especially grateful to the patrons, donors, friends, and chosen family whose support makes every rehearsal, costume change, plot twist, and suspiciously well-timed dramatic entrance possible.

As for Traitors, Krystal would like the record to show that she fully supports VOX, has complete confidence in the cast, and absolutely was not anywhere near the scene of the crime. Probably.

Enjoy the show-and trust no one.

CGMC Choral Conducting Intern Program

At CGMC, we are dedicated to helping new musicians find experience in their choral careers. In 2022, we started our choral conducting intern program where we bring in a University student to sing with the chorus for a concert cycle and teach the singers a song. At the performance, the intern gets to conduct the song in front of our audience. During the time, the student gets an archival conducting video from the concert, weekly rehearsal video footage and feedback from our Artistic Director, and priceless time on the podium.

If you are a music student interested in this program, please contact brayton@cgmc.com
